

Please note Murale Photography does not give out or sell unedited photos

For quality control, typical turnaround times are one week for initial client selection and another two weeks for final edits after client confirmed selection; any requests to receive photos at an earlier period may be subject to additional charges

Proofing gallery includes an example of a final edit for client approval; any additional edits requested by client after delivery of final photos may be denied or subject to additional charges

Editing requests beyond the scope of Murale Photography's typical work flow may be denied or subject to additional charges at Murale Photography's discretion
